Customer Service

CASUAL POSITION CANBERRA STORE

Are you looking for flexible casual work to balance your school, family, Church or other commitments?

Koorong currently has two casual positions available to work with our friendly team at the Fyshwick Store. Applicants must be available to work on Friday evenings and Saturdays, in addition to other shifts as required.

We are looking for organised and enthusiastic people with a passion for customer service.

In addition to assisting our valued customers, this position involves cash handling, computer operation, re-stocking shelves and some cleaning.

If you also have a little creative flair and an eye for detail, you will love assisting with the displays.

Training will be provided.

Please apply in writing by 22 September 2010, providing a cover letter noting your roster availability to:
