

Being selfish hurts the people around us. That's why God wants us to put others first.

